Visual identity design

Interest in making logos and brands on the idea with the client and discussing the idea with him in the event that there is improvement or notes and if he does not have an idea then we produce an idea from the beginning

Q coffee

i used the letter Q here as abasic element in the logo and made it in the form of a cup to indicate the coffee

Writer

i used the head of the pen here and made the body of the pen the letter of the writer
